

EMPA 2020 - Webcast

Embedding best practice in communicating and engaging with communities

Tuesday 2nd June

11.30 am - 1.30 pm (UTC+10)

Time	Session
11.35	Communicating Resilience after multiple disasters Shane Fitzsimmons, Commissioner, Resilience NSW
12.20	COVID-19: Risk communication in the Western Pacific Region Lauren O'Connor, World Health Organization Western Pacific
12.50	Enriching Australia's weather story Andrea Peace, Bureau of Meteorology

Wednesday 3rd June

11.30 am - 1.30 pm (UTC+10)

Time	Session
11.35	Challenges of communicating with cultural diversity in the Asia Pacific Ellie van Baaren, International Federation of Red Cross
12.20	Connecting communities recovering in tourist regions David Newberry, Clarence Valley Council
12.50	Making a splash! Addressing the challenges of floodwater risk communication Dr Mel Taylor, Bushfire and Natural Hazards CRC & Macquarie University

Thursday 4th June

11.30 am - 2.00 pm (UTC+10)

Time	Session
11.35	Identifying lessons along the way: Learning whilst delivering communications Clare Parker, UK Government comms specialist
12.20	What the ABC has learnt about emergency broadcasting? Sascha Rundle, Australian Broadcasting Corporation
12.50	Pandemic leadership: What the New Zealand approach can teach us Dr Suze Wilson, Massey University, NZ

Friday 5th June

11.30 am - 1.30 pm (UTC+10)

Time	Session
11.35	An Unimagined Crisis – the Christchurch Mosque Terror Attacks Hon. Lianne Dalziel, Mayor of Christchurch
12.20	INTERVIEW: Recovery Communications during NSW's Black Summer Jeremy Hillman, Resilience NSW
12.50	Early, planned and successful - the Indigenous approach to COVID-19 Alicia Smith, Apunipima Cape York Health Council